

New York Feb 1st 1896

Dear Mr. Hayashi

By some unlucky accident I have mislaid the bill of the vases I bought of you in July ; so that, now when I want to pay for them, I cannot tell how much money I ought to send.

Would you kindly do me the favor of making another copy of the bill and sending it the way ?

Your faithfully

C. A. Dana